

For Immediate Release

Media Contact: Kelly Freeman, Director
212.518.6912 / kelly@artmarketproductions.com

Miami Project 5

Miami Beach, Florida - November 18, 2016 - The fifth Miami Project opens Thursday, December 1st in its new location at 6625 Indian Creek Drive. Miami Project 5 will be erected within an expansive structure in Miami Beach, located just steps from the entrance of NADA Miami. The fair will be built seamlessly into the existing architecture, elegantly housing dedicated exhibition space for an exclusive roster of top national and international galleries.

The street level entrance and four floors of dedicated parking ensure a high-touch environment for top collectors, and Miami Project's co-location with the NADA art fair guarantees an extremely high level of visibility for both fairs, creating a unique, must-see experience in Miami Beach this December.

Miami Project 5 will feature presentations by prominent galleries from around the world, including a renowned list of returning exhibitors joined by a slate of exciting newcomers making their Miami Project debut. Highlights include London-based Rebecca Hossack Art Gallery, New York's ACA Galleries and Gary Snyder Fine Art, Paris-based Nil Gallery, celebrated San Francisco gallery Hashimoto Contemporary, southern tastemakers David Lusk Gallery and JONATHAN FERRARA GALLERY, Brooklyn favorite Walker Waugh, and top Los Angeles galleries Zevitas Marcus and Peter Mendenhall Gallery, among others.

Partners

The fair has renewed longstanding partnerships and cultivated new relationships with important cultural institutions and organizations including the Pérez Art Museum Miami, Asia Society, the Whitney Contemporaries, Miami International Film Festival, the Guggenheim, Bass Museum of Art, Boca Raton Museum of Art, ArtTable, the Metropolitan Museum of Art's Apollo Circle, Lowe

Art Museum and many more, expanding the fair's ties to the local and national arts communities.

Official Online Partner

Artsy is the official online partner of Miami Project. As the leading resource for learning about and collecting art, Artsy will provide a first look at the fair's important presentations of top modern and contemporary art and allow users to explore exhibitor booths, save favorites, and make sales inquiries on available artworks before the fair's official opening in Miami Beach on Artsy.net and the Artsy app.

Artsy's Online Preview launches in advance of the fair on November 22, 2016 to the general public, with an exclusive preview for press and VIPs on November 21, 2016.

To find out more about Miami Project 5 and purchase your tickets, please visit miami-project.com

Location & Hours

Miami Project

6625 Indian Creek Drive
Miami Beach, FL 33141

Miami Project Opening | Thursday, December 1, 2016

VIP Preview | 12:00p - 4:00p
Public Opening | 4:00p - 8:00p

Public Hours

Friday, December 2 | 11:00a - 7:00p
Saturday, December 3 | 11:00a - 7:00p
Sunday, December 4 | 11:00a - 6:00p

About Art Market Productions

Art Market Productions is a partnership between Jeffrey Wainhouse, Max Fishko and the dealers they work with. Since 2011 Art Market Productions has produced a different type of art fair that focuses on creating the highest quality fair experience by connecting collectors with dealers in the most optimal settings and contexts. Art Market Productions is dedicated to improving the art world by creating platforms and expanding networks of connection. Art Market Productions currently produces six art fairs: Art on Paper, Art Market San Francisco, Market Art + Design Hamptons, Seattle Art Fair, Texas Contemporary, and Miami Project.